

The Wormwood Review

repulsive insect, causing physical allergy-prone people. allergists, Drs. Halla Brown, ention had been dical literature, urteen allergic idred fifty-four cockroach mate- cent of the al- of the normal n that they had exposure. How? positive reactors extracts of dog been partially ey promptly de- , indicating that cockroaches can may be just as gists suggest, to h cockroach ex- extract and to up immunity.

Volume four, number two; issue number fourteen

Editor: Marvin Malone; Art Editor: A. Sypher
New York Representative: Harold Briggs

Copyright © 1964, The Wormwood Review Press
Subscription and Editorial Offices: P. O. Boxes 101 and 111, Storrs, Connecticut, 06268, U.S.A.

to being a h may be c r many aller; gton, D. C., ernton and ery little att pest in me hundred fo d two hur iduals, with und 28 per 7.5 per cent itively, a sig ed by prior study, the 1 sted with e s that had kroaches. Th gic reactions ination by c ization. It he two aller; patients wit a house dust as to build

Loud Speaker In Vietnam

On a pole beside a road
across a plain,
a white horn,
that looks as if a bathtub manufacturer
had made it,
twitters Chinese
to birds
and rain clouds.

— Gloria Kenison

Newtonville, Mass.

In addition the cockroach discomfort for Two Washin Harry S. B noting that v paid to the tested one patients, an normal indiv rial. They fo lergic and reacting posi been sensitiz In a further were skin-te chow pellet eaten by coc veloped aller food contam explain sens important, t test allergic tract as with use injection